“ Jeff, Bobbi, Mary, and Leah: My thoughts and prayers are with you. I remember Ginger as always thinking of others...baking and making things for others. She made these adorable snowman hats for my girls when they were little. I still have it. Rest in peace, Ginger. You were so special to so many, and I know you will be missed.

“Ginger was my favorite sister in law. She had a heart of gold and was always there for the family. I will miss her very much. My girls always loved going to Aunt Ginger and Uncle Nicks house. You always felt welcome and loved. All my love to Jeffrey and his family.

“Ginger made the best banana cake ever she shipped one all the way to North Dakota. Yum! One year she made hat's for all the Bergeron grandkids, WOW. I was lucky to know her. Leah and Mary were the luckiest girls to have her in their lives all the time. She will be remembered for her thoughtfulness. Knack family you are in my thoughts and prayers. Jeana Bergeron

“Ginger was truly a Southern cook and hostess and enjoyed it to the fullest. When we would visit from North Dakota, she would cook up a feast fit for a king. She always remembered our favorite dishes and liked to share her recipes. She was a genuine person, which carried over to her son, Jeff. We love you with all our hearts and thank you for the husband and father that you are. Mary and Leah will miss their Grandma a lot, but have many wonderful memories of their time together. Be sure to share those memories often. We would love to be there with you, but know that we are always there for you. Remember God is with your family in this time of sorrow.

“Ginger truly was a southern cook and hostess. When we would visit from North Dakota she would cook up the most scrumptious meals. She enjoyed entertaining and sharing her recipes. She was a very genuine person and that rubbed off on her son, Jeff. We love you with all our hearts and wish we could be there with you, but know we are always there for you. Mary and Leah have many fond memories of the time they had with their Grandma. She will be greatly missed, but remembered in the stories she has given everyone. Be sure to share all those good times. Love you all. Know that God is with you in these days of sorrow. Mom and Dad Bergeron

“Ginger was much more to us than just our office manager. If someone was having a baby or grandbaby Ginger spent countless hours crocheting a blanket for the newborn. Every Christmas we all looked forward to a big plate of all of her “treats”. She was genuinely interested in each of us and our families.

Ginger loved to express her creative side at work: her collection of pens laid out on her desk; the hand written notes in her unmistakable handwriting, her delight in finding all of those fonts to put in every document she created.

There was never a task too daunting for her to tackle. She learned three accounting systems in 20 years, even flying (with Nick’s help) to Utah to learn one of them. She recreated an entire month of accounting (my bad) and formatted and typed a kid’s baseball rule book for me in just a couple of days. Ginger was always up to the challenge.

All of us at Hawkins Bros. extend our deepest sympathy to Ginger’s family.

“ Ginger was a very sweet loving person. She made my babies gorgeous blankets and matching swing coats. I know that took a lot of personal time and love to do such a beautiful job. I still have them, though my babies are 7 & 8 now, but I will cherish them forever. She will be greatly missed.

“ My husband worked with Ginger for many years and has many fond memories of her. She would make them all a tray of sweets for Christmas every year and when he had some problems with his teeth she would make him special batches of goodies with no pecans, she was so very kind. She made special gifts for our children when they were married...just such a wonderfully sweet and thoughtful lady...My husband truly enjoyed Ginger's friendship and our whole family loved Ginger as well, she will be missed.
