“ Gary, I am so sorry for your loss. What wonderful memories I have of Virginia. She never met a stranger, and was always more concerned with what was going on in your life, than hers. She will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

PS

“ Tomorrow we will bury a wonderful woman who battled cancer for over seven years. My Aunt Virginia didn't spend her days dying from cancer though, instead, she spent them living from it. She was such an inspiration to us all. I never saw her say "why me" instead, she said "why not me" and looked at each day as a gift from God and served as a testimony and example to everyone. I am a better person because of the things she taught me and I will strive to look at each day as a blessing just as she did. Life will not be the same without her but I take comfort in thinking about the joyous family reunion she is having in heaven.

“ God Bless the Rowan/Webb family. I had the honor to know Virginia and she became an inspiration to me. She never met a person she didn't welcome with open arms. She was a true example of how we as humans should treat our fellow kind. Gods Speed, Virginia.
