“ She was such a gift in our lives. She was great friends with my Me-Ma and with my mother. We sang together, ate together and shared a lot of love. God bless you, Virnie. I know you are up there watching over us all. Love you!

“ Virnie led music at Wainwright Baptist Church. Really did enjoy knowing her and she and her sister could sing so pretty together.

“ Vinnie was very special. I was her therapist while I worked in Muskogee. I always thought I would drive to Muskogee to see her again but living in OKC and working out of town, I kept putting it off. I'm so sorry I never made it back. I will always remember her and how much knowing her blessed my life in so many ways. I love you Virnie.
