

Wanda Sue Farr

August 10, 1944 - March 18, 2019

Wanda Sue (Burnett) Farr, 74, of Muskogee, OK, passed away Monday, March 18, 2019 after a brief illness. She was born on August 10, 1944, in Ladonia, TX to Loyd and Mamie (Watson) Burnett. Wanda graduated from Ladonia High School in May of 1962 and attended East Texas State University in Commerce, TX. Wanda worked in the banking industry her entire career. She began working at a bank in Antlers, OK and then Citizens Bank, American Bank, and Bank of Oklahoma in Muskogee, OK. She retired from BancFirst in Muskogee as a mortgage loan processor.

Wanda loved spending time with her granddaughter, playing with her cat Domino, reading, and watching OKC Thunder basketball.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her sister, Peggy Davis; and brother, Lyndal Burnett.

Wanda is survived by her three children, daughter, Cathy Guthrie and husband Ron, of Tulsa, daughter, Sara Kyte and husband Jay, of OKC, and son, Bill Farr and wife Cindy, of Muskogee; granddaughter, Lindsay Guthrie of OKC; step-grandsons, Kevin and Jeremy Koel of Muskogee; brother, Johnny Burnett and wife Pam, of Burleson, TX; sister-in-law, Sue Hardy and niece, Margaret Hardy, both of Austin, TX; and other family members and friends.

The family requests that memorials be made to Life Share Foundation, 4705 NW Expressway, Oklahoma City, OK 73132 (www.lifeshareokfoundation.org); or the Multiple Sclerosis Society, 4606 East 67th Street, Suite 103, Tulsa, OK 74136 (www.nationalmssociety.org).

Funeral services for Wanda will be 1:30 p.m., Saturday, March 23, 2019 at Cornerstone Funeral Home, 1830 North York Street, Muskogee, OK 74403, with Chaplain Bill Crow officiating.

“ *Wanda and I shared many, many good times and helped one another through some bad times as well. When I moved away we fell out of touch. However, I smile when I think of her and her crazy sense of humor and all the fun memories of our shenanigans. I always admired how she put her children before anything else in the world. She was a great Mom. RIP Wanda
See you someday,
