“ This is the last video we have of my son Warren. My grandchildren loved him so very much. He was the “fun” Uncle and played with them with all the time.

“ Warren was a kind, funny and thoughtful person
I met Warren in 8th grade and had the pleasure of calling him a friend.
We made our first Myspace pages together (I sent a friend request to his middle school crush and he wasn't to happy about that one)
We made silly videos together on his RAZR flip phone.
As young adults Warren and I got ourselves into a few interesting situations, but he would never lose his since of humor.

“ We really can't find the words. We loved Warren as one of our kids. He lived with us on and off over the years. He was a kind, funny and sweet child. We are so sorry for his families loss. Warren will always live in our hearts forever and be missed horribly.
