

William Clarence 'Bill' Anderson Jr.

March 2, 1948 - February 7, 2018

William Clarence "Bill" Anderson, Jr., 69, passed from this life on February 7, 2018.

An avid OU fan, Bill was Maintenance Supervisor at Jess Dunn Correctional Center, where he also met his future bride, April. Bill and April shared a deep and abiding love, recently celebrating their 12th year of marriage before his untimely passing.

Bill was a skilled tradesman who held himself to the highest standards of quality and workmanship in every job he undertook. He enjoyed the love, friendship, and admiration of all whose lives he touched.

Bill loved going to the movies, watching sports on TV, and spending quality time with his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, W.C. Anderson, Sr. and Dorothy Anderson; and an infant daughter.

He is survived by his wife, April, of the home; step children, Shanna Daniel and husband Warren, Corrina Smith and husband Kevin, Bayleigh Zakula, Charlie Smith and wife Mary; grandchildren, great-grandchildren; brother, Tim Anderson and wife Joy; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A family led memorial service for Bill will be 10AM, Friday, February 16, 2018 at First United Methodist Church, 600 E. Okmulgee, Muskogee.

“ I am Bill's step daughter and also DOC employee. I knew Bill personally and professionally for over 19 years. He was a wonder man. One of the best parts about him is how he treated my mom. I can't thank him enough for that. I know though he will be waiting for the day that they will be together again.
